

Included in assessment:

6-8 hours in length

Administered directly by Dr. Jeff Van Meter or Brad Oostindie at any Ready To Focus or Legacy Clinical Consultant office location

Assessment summary provide for your records functioning as it relates to athletic performance. Included is the following:

- 21 site locations measured via the neurofeedback equipment to assess your brain's ability to stay calm, focused, and in the zone.
- Standardized continuous performance testing to measure ability to sustain effort on tasks, attention span, distraction, and impulsivity
- Central nervous system assessment and heart rate variability assessment measuring your body's ability to perform.
- Personality assessment

This assessment is designed to provide athletes all the information they need regarding their brain and body and how it is affecting their particular sport.

